I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:13

The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me.

Psalm 28:7

I Trust in the Lord with all my heart and lean not on my understanding; in all my ways I submit to Him, and He will make my paths straight.

Proverbs 3:5-6

I can rest in the Lord and wait patiently for him, knowing that he has good plans for me and my family.

Jeremiah 29:11

I am equipped and empowered by the Holy Spirit to teach and train my children in the way they should go.

2 Timothy 1:7

I have wisdom from above, and I can seek God's guidance in all my homeschooling decisions.

James 1:5

The Lord goes before me and makes a way for me and my children. He is our rear guard.

Isaiah 52:12

I can rejoice always, pray continually, and give thanks in all circumstances, knowing that this is God's will for me and my family.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

I can teach my children to love the Lord with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Deuteronomy 6:5

I can be confident that God is working all things together for good, even in the challenges and struggles of homeschooling.

Romans 8:28

I am fearfully and wonderfully made, and God has uniquely equipped me to homeschool my children.

Psalm 139:14

I can teach my children to trust in the Lord with all their heart and not lean on their own understanding.

Proverbs 3:5

I can be strong and courageous, not afraid or discouraged, because the Lord my God is with me wherever I go.

Joshua 1:9

I can find rest and refreshment in the Lord, even in the midst of homeschooling challenges.

Psalm 23:2-3

I can cultivate a home atmosphere of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, with God's help.

Galatians 5:22-23

I can be a living example of Christ's love and grace to my children, teaching them to love God and others as themselves.

John 13:34-35

I can persevere in faith and endurance, knowing that my labor in the Lord is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:58

I can put on the full armor of God, standing firm in his truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, and the Word of God.

Ephesians 6:10-18

I can pray without ceasing for my children, seeking God's wisdom and guidance in all areas of their lives.

1 Thessalonians 5:17

I can find joy in the Lord, even in the mundane and ordinary tasks of homeschooling, knowing that he has a purpose and plan for me and my family.

Philippians 4:4-7